

Art Basel

Miami muralist Krave leads team of artists to spotlight Wynwood Central during Art Basel

Like 88

The mixed-use development gives local artists space for street art with the Wynwood Central Artist Collective

- Wynwood Central, just north of Panther Coffee on NW 2nd Ave., Wynwood
- Thursday, Dec. 5, 6 - 8 p.m.
Free and open to the public.

By Galena Mosovich | galenascott@gmail.com

12/2/2013

Wynwood Central, a mixed-use development project currently underway, is transforming the perimeter of its site into a work of art for Art Basel. Acclaimed Miami-based muralist Daniel Fila (aka Krave) and a team of nine local artists – Yuval Ofir, Ruben Ubiera, Kazilla, Eddie Mendieta, Jay Bellichi, Rei Ramirez, Phil Fung, and Arnaud Pages – are working on-site this week leading up to the official unveiling on Thursday, Dec. 5 from 6 – 8 p.m. The event will take place between 24th and 25th St., just west of NW 2nd Ave.

Wynwood Central is slated to open in 2015 north of Panther Coffee as a community space for residents and visitors to gather, shop, dine, work and live. The plan includes a mix of retail, office, residential, rooftop entertainment and green spaces.